Original Offense: Copyright Infringement Conspiracy To Defraud The United States, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371, a Class D Felony

Original Sentence: 9 Days Prison, 27 Months Supervised Release

Type of Supervision: TSR

Date Supervision Commenced: 05/19/2021

SUMMARY

On May 19, 2021, the above referenced defendant was sentenced by the Honorable Richard M. Berman, U.S. District Judge, for the offense of Conspiracy To Commit Copyright Infringement. As a condition of the defendant's supervised release, he was ordered by the Court to participate in weekly therapeutic individual counseling by a licensed therapist.

The defendant began therapeutic services with RoShanna Robinson on or around November 10, 2021, and he has attended sessions on a weekly basis. Per Ms. Robinson, Mr. Correa "has been challenged to critically think situations, thought processes, and behavior patterns and has been really receptive to the therapeutic process." Ms. Robinson reported she believes at this point that he "is rehabilitated and recommends that the court mandated therapy be suspended." Therefore, this officer respectfully recommends that the mental health treatment condition be suspended at this time. Suspending the condition does not remove it but allows the probation officer to hold off on referring the defendant to a treatment program unless warranted. If treatment is indicated in the future, the probation officer can implement the condition and make the appropriate referral.
